

Mr. Dehon stated that in the recent interview with Cocoa City officials the representation received, information that the first step necessary is to create the Housing Authority and then the appointment of the Housing Commission, who carry over into the matter with the Government.

Commissioner Pence stated that it is thought that matters now being taken care of through the Atlanta office that matters can be more easily handled than was the case with Cocoa transactions were through the Washington office.

I, the undersigned, duly appointed City Clerk of the City of Stuart, Florida, HEREBY CERTIFY that this is true and correct copy of the original.
